Mike Conley Message January 2021

Dear Branch 94 SIRs

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2021.
This is my last column as Big SIR. There are two TERRIFIC programs on hand for Thursday evening's Virtual no-lunch Meeting. Callers Call and get members to come. We have room.

There is no pleasure in me stepping down. I enjoy being of Service to you, my friends, for the last 2 years, and am handing over the reins (of what?) to Ed Shpiel 2020's Treasurer and a happy, competent fellow. You all and I were well served by the well-worn BEC and Directors, who do ALL the work for Chapter 94. I will continue to serve as Secretary; Jim Stonehouse will step done after five years overtime; Neil Keever will replace Ed as Treasurer. NO MEMBERS have answered my call to replace/increase "required" position of assistants to these officers. The BEC would certainly approve of members interested in serving. We have had only two volunteers, Allyn Morriss and Don Slama, in the past two years. Covid-19 is not the only reason that Branch 94 is shrinking. Branch 34 closed in December. SIR STATE is offering a week of WEBIMARs beginning January 11 to drum up what they can.

God bless Ed and all those who are willing to carry on.

x-Big SIR Mike Conley
